CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

CHAIR'S MESSAGE

Raman Dahia | Chair

I am pleased to present the January to July Report for 2016. This period was both challenging and successful for the Consumer Council of Fiji. The Ministry of Industry, Trade and Tourism (MITT) appointed the Council's Board members for a 3-year term. The Council's Board of Directors included four new members (Elizabeth Algar, Mohammed Gani, Arunesh Chand and Rosie Lagi) and 2 members (Vimal Kumar and Deepa Lal) were re-appointed.

There is no doubt that the first seven months of 2016 were a turbulent period in Fiji's history with the strongest cyclone ever recorded. TC Winston left a trail of destruction, the effects of which are being felt to this very day by consumers.

However, robust consumption and investment activity continued in this period and was mainly due to the Government-backed initiative to allow members to draw from their Fiji National Provident Fund (FNPF) accounts to support rehabilitation.

Against such a challenging backdrop, the Consumer Council of Fiji continued to advocate on key consumer issues as it was evident that certain traders were engaged in price gouging after the cyclone. It was also found that a large number of consumers lost their homes because they could not obtain cyclone/flood insurance cover due to high premium rates, the high cost of meeting all the requirements to obtain an engineer's cyclone certificate, or, because there was no insurance product offered to low-income earners. In this regard, the Council decided to have more discussion with key stakeholders involved in property insurance.

The passing of the Fair Reporting of Credit Act of 2016 by the Parliament was another achievement the Council was proud to be a part of, as it had been lobbying for the past 10 years to regulate the Data Bureau Limited (DBL).

The month of July was historic for the Council as the country's first ever National Consumer Helpline (NCH) was launched by the Attorney-General and Minister of Economy, Hon. Aiyaz Sayed-Khaiyum. A massive media campaign was launched, with the Council partnering with four media organisations (The Fiji Times, Fiji Sun, FBC and Fiji TV) to publicise the toll-free number and for NCH-related articles to be published/broadcast free of charge.

It is envisaged that the NCH will be a useful medium for consumers to report on traders/retailers and service providers that do not make adjustments to retail prices when Government reduces duties on goods and services. The purpose of duty reduction by Government is to ensure that the benefits are passed on to consumers.

The Council is grateful to the Government for increasing the Council's annual budget to exceed one million dollars for the first time ever, since the Council was established in 1976. This clearly indicates the Government's commitment to consumer protection.

During this period, the Council received donor funds for two projects. We thank our donors, namely, the European Union (EU) and the Anne Fransen Fund (AFF) through the Dutch Government. These donors financially assisted the Council in setting up the Fiji Mediation Centre and in raising awareness on the consumer financial protection laws and redress mechanisms.

On behalf of the Board, I would also like to thank the Minister for Industry, Trade & Tourism and his Permanent Secretary for their support in increasing the government grant and for furthering consumer protection.

I sincerely thank the Chief Executive Officer of the Consumer Council of Fiji and her management team and staff who have worked both smart and hard to achieve the deliverables outlined in the Service Agreement. My fellow Board members also deserve praise for setting high standards in the guidance of, and, monitoring the progress of the Council.

The Council is grateful for the trust and respect that consumers have placed in it. We will continue to reflect and represent the views of consumers and work to protect their interests.

The coming financial year will be an important one for consumers. The Council's strategy is sound and its management is focused. We look forward to working closely with the Government to ensure that the consumer voice is heard in the formulation of policies, enactment of laws and regulations as well as other reforms.

I wish the Council a very productive 2016-2017 financial year.

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER'S REPORT

A MIXED BAG OF GAINS AND LOSSES

Premila Kumar | Chief Executive Officer

I am pleased to present the Council's achievements for the period 1 January to 31 July 2016, against the targets outlined in our Service Agreement.

Two momentous achievements brought smiles to the faces of Fijians during this period. A State-intervention saw the enactment of the Fair Reporting of Credit Act of 2016 to regulate Data Bureau Ltd, followed by the launch of Fiji's first ever National Consumer Helpline - a toll-free telephone service that provides direct access to consumers irrespective of where they live in Fiji and which mobile phone network they subscribe to.

The nation also saw a reduction in the VAT (Value Added Tax) rate. There was much enthusiasm and excitement among consumers with the implementation of the new 9 percent VAT rate, reduced from the previous 15 percent. This was a key Government initiative to ease the cost of living for all Fijians. This taxation reform kept the Council on its toes, requiring us to step up surveillance in the marketplace. We carried out vigorous media campaigns to remind consumers to keep a close watch on their receipts to check if the new VAT rate had been applied.

This effort was, however, derailed by the upheaval caused by Tropical Cyclone Winston, the Southern Hemisphere's strongest storm ever, which cost the nation 42 lives and made many families homeless, ripping away their livelihoods. This unprecedented catastrophe impacted our economy as well, with the effects still being felt by ordinary consumers. They have had to dig deeper into their pockets to make ends meet. A glaring example was the skyrocketing prices of fresh vegetables; a bundle of bananas which used to cost $2.00 was being sold for 5 times more. The Government also announced a national strategy to address the economic crisis. This resulted in a change in the financial year with the announcement of the 2016/2017 National Budget on 22 June 2016. A number of significant announcements were made in order to rebuild and recover after TC Winston.

In the midst of these trying times, the Council still managed to achieve its key performance indicators, met most of its targets and kept working to improve on its service-delivery by reaching out to particularly the vulnerable and disabled.

The Council's highly energetic team remained focused on resolving consumer complaints and providing sound advice to Fijians who sought redress for unfair treatment in the marketplace. The Council registered a total of 1,365 cases during the seven months of 2016, worth $2,963,326. About $1,551,212 million was recovered from traders/service-providers and given back to consumers. In addition to this, the Council also pro-actively provided advisories where it found that the consumers were likely to be most affected.

NOTABLE ACHIEVEMENTS

VAT Monitoring

The Council played a lead role with the Fiji Revenue and Customs Authority (FRCA) and the Fiji Commerce Commission (FCC) to monitor and assist in exposing those unscrupulous traders and service providers that did not pass on the gains from the VAT reduction to consumers. By 31 May 2016, the Council had compiled a total of 148 VAT-related complaints and queries. Consequently, FRCA collected $700,000 in fines from supermarkets, a cinema company, stores, restaurants and car dealers for non-compliance.

Closure of Data Bureau Limited

Decade-long lobbying by the Council to have the Data Bureau Limited regulated, finally saw the enactment of the Fair Reporting of Credit Act 2016, which came into effect on 27 May 2016. The handing over of credit history data to the Reserve Bank of Fiji meant a new start for consumers. This was a big win for consumers and a major achievement for the Council - a result of 10 long years of lobbying to get the Data Bureau regulated. This line of business needed a proper legislative structure and ground rules, particularly when peoples' sensitive financial details were being traded.

Launch of National Consumer Helpline (NCH)

NCH is a government initiative to assist consumers to file complaints through the toll-free number 155 by using any telecommunications company. For the first time ever, Fijian consumers were able to lodge complaints or raise the alarm regarding unfair trade practices taking place in the marketplace.

A massive media campaign was launched, with the Council partnering with four media organisations (The Fiji Times, Fiji Sun, FBC and Fiji TV) to publicise the toll-free number and to publish NCH articles free of charge. The NCH has already proven to be a success as the Council has been inundated with complaints/queries from across the country since its launch on 14 July 2016. From 14 to 31 July, the Council received 683 calls, of which 306 calls were noted to be genuine.

Banks Error Rectified

The Council unveiled yet another reckless practice by six commercial banks operating in Fiji.

A complaint driven snap-check by the Council revealed that all banks had committed an error in the application of the 'Resident Interest Withholding Tax' (RIWT) on interest earned by their customers. All six banks (BSP, Westpac, Baroda, HFC, Bred Bank and ANZ) charged incorrect RIWT on interest earned. FRCA imposed a reduced 10% RIWT effective from 1 January 2016 but the banks continued to charge 20%. The Council brought this to the attention of the banks as well as FRCA and RBF to rectify the error. Two media releases were issued to highlight the issue and to advise the consumers to check their respective bank statements.

JEVIC reintroduced

The Council advocated for the re-introduction of JEVIC (Japan Export Vehicle Inspection Centre) to ensure Fijian consumers have access to quality second-hand vehicles imported from Japan. Effective from 15 August 2016, vehicles imported from Japan would pass through the watchful eyes of JEVIC before being shipped to Fiji. JEVIC assessment will identify structurally non-compliant vehicles with significant damage from/corrosion/fire/flood, have the odometer verified against the vehicle and its export certificate, and, ensure the vehicle is not a stolen vehicle before it reaches Fiji.

Fiji Mediation Centre

Another good news was the setting up of the Fiji Mediation Centre (FMC) which is now operational, with consumers and businesses slowly opting to use the services of the FMC. The Council is greatly indebted to its donor-partner, the European Union (EU), for supporting the promotion and awareness of mediation as a mechanism to resolve complaints and the importance of the role of FMC. The Council organised a Mediators' Forum and a Stakeholders' Seminar jointly with the Judicial Department to create awareness so that consumers and businesses can use the FMC to resolve disputes.

Counterfeit Cosmetics

With the Council's intervention, a local boutique was exposed and taken to task for selling fake make-up products. The Council carried out investigations against Tulips Beauty & Fashion. The boutique had advertised that the MAC Cosmetics retailed were authentic. The Council wrote to the original MAC Cosmetics Company based in New York through its official website. The company responded that Tulips Beauty & Fashion was not their customer and it was retailing fake MAC Cosmetics. The online web page through which the company was ordering and receiving goods in Fiji was shut down due to the legal efforts of the New York-based parent MAC Company.

World Consumer Rights Day

The Council celebrated the 2016 World Consumer Rights Day (WCRD) with the theme, 'Stop Misuse of Antibiotics' by partnering with the Ministry of Health and Medical Services and the World Health Organization (WHO) to create awareness on this issue. The Council produced fact sheets (in three languages) to inform and educate consumers and medical practitioners on how they could help combat the emerging superbugs that are making antibiotics less effective.

The Fijian Government also expressed support for the CI's call to have 15 March (WCRD) declared as United Nations International Day.

Biosecurity and Council sign MOU

The Biosecurity Authority of Fiji (BAF) and Consumer Council of Fiji signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) to enable sharing of information and cooperation between both agencies for the benefit of the Fijian consumers.

CONTROVERSIES

Sky Pacific

The Council took a strong stand against Sky Pacific for the poor delivery of services particularly the poor quality of its telecast after Sky was acquired by Digicel in April 2016. Frustrated subscribers continued to contact the Council, expressing their disgust over the manner in which Sky Pacific was showing the programs. Subscribers were getting 'scrambled channels' and an unorganised program menu. After several rounds of meetings and exchanges of emails, Digicel assured the Council that they would fix the problem areas. The Council continued to keep tab on the issue.

Cyclone Insurance Excess

The Housing Authority had increased its cyclone insurance excess from $1,250 to $2000 without informing the consumers. The Authority admitted its error and agreed to refund the difference of $750 to all affected consumers.

Conclusion

The Council will continue to play a positive and assertive role in achieving a marketplace where consumers are well informed, confident and protected from unlawful, deceptive, misleading or otherwise objectionable practices. While the Council has achieved much, it believes that the enforcement of the nation's consumer protection laws is critical and central to the well-being and protection of consumers.

The Council remains indebted to the Government, its donor partners - the European Union and the CI - for their financial support. The Council's relationship with EU has been a critical success factor in its campaign on debt management service and on mediation through the Fiji Mediation Centre.

I also express my gratitude to the Council Board members for their guidance and foresightedness and also to my team whose hard work and enthusiasm make it all possible.

I also thank our line Minister, the Permanent Secretary for Industry, Trade and Tourism, government ministries and departments and consumer protection agencies for their support to the Council.

Special thanks go to Fijian consumers for being vigilant and having the courage to come forward with their complaints. Whilst I am very pleased with the level of interest and interaction of the many supportive consumers, I feel that many more consumers can do a lot to support the Council to better its delivery of services by raising their voices on issues that affect them. They need to provide evidence of instances where some traders and service providers may have treated them unfairly.

The remaining 2016 will be all about making a greater difference in the lives of Fijians.

Thank you.

Manage and update National Consumer Helpline Database

- 306 complaints were entered into the database. 63 advises were given, 125 complaints were registered and 118 consumers were contacted to provide documentation/evidence to resolve their complaints.

The National Consumer Helpline (NCH) was launched by the Attorney-General and Minister of Economy, Hon. Aiyaz Sayed-Khaiyum on 14 July, 2016.

CAMPAIGNS, INFORMATION & MEDIA

➤ Goal 1: Improve consumers' ability to make informed decisions

Consumers today engage in complex markets that are continuously expanding their information base and rapidly increasing their choice of products. The need for consumers to have access to quality and up-to-date information is vital to ensure the best protection and the ability to choose wisely and make informed decisions. Relevant education is critical in empowering consumers to assert their rights in encountering unfair trade practices.

The Council has continued to take an integrated approach towards consumer education and awareness by sharing information through school visits, lectures at tertiary institutions, workshops, community visits, mobile units, and social and the mainstream media. At all times, the Council has sought to ensure that dissemination of information and awareness reaches the widest possible audience.

Social media has emerged as one of the most used mediums by consumers, hence the Council has used this platform to raise awareness, publish advisories, interact with the consumers with regard to their complaints and keep them engaged on the Council's major activities.

Objective 1: Provide consumers with the practical knowledge and skills to be more critical and competent when buying goods and services

Consumers can be provided with the best of all protections through a well-conducted education programme, which can prove to be crucial in building confidence so that the consumers do not fall victim to fraudulent, misleading or unfair trade practices particularly given the complexities that markets operate in today. It is imperative that consumers and businesses know about their rights and responsibilities. To achieve this objective, the Council conducted the following activities:

- Mobile Units – The aim of the mobile unit is to reach out to consumers in person especially those who are unable to visit the Council's Head Office or the Regional Offices in the Western and Northern divisions. This approach has proved to be effective and resourceful as the Council reached out to 897 consumers during this period. It should be noted that 486 males and 411 females directly benefited from this.

- Community Visits: One of the core objectives of the Council is to reach out and support the most vulnerable and disadvantaged consumers living in informal settlements and villages. The Council targeted women's clubs as part of its community visits, informing them of their rights and responsibilities as consumers. A total of 15 communities were visited during this period – these included the Catholic Young Women's Group, Marist Champagnat Institute Staff, Basden (Anglican) College Staff, members of Muanivatu Settlement, members of Jittu Estate, Lovu Sangam Teachers, Maharishi College Staff, food vendors from Lautoka City Council, Senior Citizens Ba Community Centre, Lautoka Muslim Primary Staff, Sigatoka Andhra Sangam College Staff, Sigatoka Methodist College Staff, Vunimoli Mothers' Club, Rualago Womens' Group and Nasekula Village.

The Council reached 357 consumers, of which 104 were males and 253 were females.

The Council conducts Mobile Units to reach out to consumers who are unable to visit the Council's offices.

- Workshops: Formal workshops provide a platform to discuss important and pertinent consumer issues. Twenty (20) workshops were held which attracted 1,064 participants. This included 628 males and 436 females. The Council received requests from 13 different organisations to speak on consumer-related issues such as Consumer Rights and Responsibilities, Landlord and Tenancy, Role of Consumer Protection in Poverty Reduction and Consumer Complaints in Real Estate Industry. Refer to Annex 1 for details.

- Visit to Schools and Tertiary Institutions: It is important to reach out to children at a very young age so that they are able to grasp their rights and responsibilities as child consumers and remember them as adult consumers in the future. As a result, schools become an important platform for teaching children about consumer-related issues so that they are able to acquire the knowledge and skills required to be responsible consumers in the future. The Council visited 19 schools which saw 2,172 participants comprising 1,064 males and 1,108 females who learned about consumer rights and responsibilities.
- The Council conducted 3 lecture sessions which benefitted 84 participants, of which 28 were males and 56 females from The University of the South Pacific, APTECH Computing School and Vishan InfoTech. The issues included ethics and values, consumer protection laws, and consumer rights and responsibilities including the role of the Consumer Council.
- A total of 31 members of the public including school students visited the Council's library to seek information for school assignments and research projects.

Objective 2: Disseminate information on matters affecting the interest of consumers

These days, information is readily available for consumers through various modes such as newspapers, television, radio or electronic media. The Council continued to maintain its visibility across various platforms through press conferences, talkback shows on radio and television and press releases. The Council issued 41 press releases on 38 different issues during January – July 2016. It was also able to respond quickly and strategically to many issues affecting the interests of consumers that came up in the media. Reaching consumers swiftly and accurately helped in building the confidence that consumers need to operate in increasingly complex markets.

- Radio: A total of 2,560 radio programmes were conducted, of which 318 radio commercials on the Fiji Mediation Centre were broadcast on all 6 FBC radio stations. A total of 98 radio commercials on the National Consumer Helpline were aired free of charge by FBC. Other radio programmes covered 216 issues which included cybercrime concerns, Justice of Peace (JP), Data Bureau, tenancy issues, Fiji Electricity Authority (FEA) subsidy, home loan rates, Consumer Credit Act and awareness on the Council's recently launched National Consumer Helpline. 851 radio programmes were conducted in the English language, 783 in i-Taukei and 906 in Hindi. In addition to these, 20 radio programmes were recorded for the School Broadcasting Units particularly for students and teachers.

Twenty TV commercials were aired on hardship clause and debt-to-income ratio under the Anne Fransen Fund (AFF). In addition to commercials, 110 news articles featured on FBC TV and Fiji TV and 18 talkback shows.
- Cinema Advertisements: This is a good platform to raise awareness on key important issues. The Council ran commercials on FMC in 14 cinemas halls with 1,400 screenings of the advertisement.
- Print Media: Newspapers published a total of 298 articles in all three languages covering 149 different issues such as rent freeze order, caution on car insurance, reading food labels, unfair traders, price control, antibiotics use and Toyota vehicle

- Website: The Council's website www.consumersfiji.org was updated regularly to keep its visitors informed on the work done by the Council. All Press Releases issued to the media including feature articles were updated regularly on the Council's website. A total of 342 articles were also published on 26 different websites covering 167 issues.

Publications

- Consumer Watch: A total of 2000 copies of Volume 34 of Consumer Watch was published covering the January-July 2016 period. Key issues and activities were reported during the period, which included the signing of a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) between the Council and Biosecurity Authority of Fiji (BAF) which saw the strengthening of information sharing such as non-compliance of VAT reduction; misuse of antibiotics and others between the two organisations.
- Factsheets: A factsheet on "Stop Misuse of Antibiotics" was produced. A total of 3000 factsheets were produced in 3 languages. These factsheets were used by the Council to raise awareness on the effects of misusing antibiotics.
- Brochures: Around 3000 copies of "Mediation in Fiji" brochures were produced in 3 languages. These brochures aimed to raise awareness on the role of the Fiji Mediation Centre (FMC) and the types of problems it can resolve through mediation.

Objective 3: Mount campaigns on key consumer issues to raise awareness and to educate consumers to become participative, critical and competent in assessing goods and services.

The Council conducted the following campaigns during this period:

- World Consumer Rights Day (WCRD): The Council celebrated the 2016 World Consumer Rights Day (WCRD) with the theme, 'Stop Misuse of Antibiotics' in conjunction with the Ministry of Health and Medical Services and the World Health Organization (WHO). A press conference was organised with key stakeholders to raise awareness on misuse of antibiotics. Newspaper supplements with 16 articles were published in the Fiji Times and Fiji Sun respectively. The key messages during WCRD were that consumers should not spend their money to buy antibiotics from the counter and should complete the antibiotics dose as prescribed by the doctors. Secondly, that doctors and nurses should avoid over-prescribing antibiotics and only give them to patients in genuine need.

- Car Safety campaign: To complement Consumers International's (CI) campaign on car safety, an introductory article on "Stop the Crash" partnership was published in the June 2016 edition of Consumer Watch. An advisory article on 'Car Safety' was also published on 9 July 2016 in The Fiji Times.

Objective 4: Educate and inform traders and service providers about consumer protection

The Council reached out to traders and service providers, educating and informing them on consumer laws, trader rights and responsibilities, redress mechanisms and cases of unfair trade practices. The Council works closely with the traders and service providers to assist consumers to get value for their money.

RESEARCH & POLICY ANALYSIS

➤ Goal 2: Drive change to benefit consumers

For a thorough understanding of the root causes of the problems that arise between consumers and traders, the Council engages in evidence-based research, prepares issues papers on key consumer concerns, and, conducts market surveillance to protect consumers from unscrupulous traders and service providers.

Objective 1: Advising the Minister on issues that affect consumers

Issues papers assist the Council in lobbying for change in policies as well as raise awareness on the extent of the problem and what consumers can do to better protect themselves.

The Council prepared one issues paper during this period which focused on the 2016 World Consumer Rights Day (WCRD) theme on "Misuse of Antibiotics". This paper captured the reasons and the behaviour of various stakeholders (Consumers, Medical Practitioners/Health Workers, Farmers, etc.) when it comes to prescribing and using antibiotics. The Council's key concern was that many consumers believe that antibiotics can cure every illness. As a result, they take antibiotics for quick relief or use someone else's leftover antibiotics.

Objective 2: Making representations to the Government or to any other persons or organisations on issues affecting the interests of consumers

The Council endeavors to have consumers positioned at the core of policy which prioritises consumer issues and ensures fairness in the trading system. The Council makes submissions and representations to the Government, policymakers, regulators and other relevant bodies on issues affecting consumers. The written submissions ensure that the consumer voice is heard in the formulation of policies, enactment of laws and regulations or other reforms.

- Submissions: The Council made 7 submissions on price control orders and the enactment or review of laws. These submissions focused on striking a balance between producers and consumers. The Council saw the opportunity to prepare a submission for 2016 -2017 National Budget submission to ensure the consumer voice is also heard on the high cost of living. The list of submissions made by the Council is shown in Table 12.

Standards Development Work

A questionnaire on Consumer Services was completed and submitted to the Department of National Trade Measurement and Standards for submission to ISO Committee on Consumer Policy (ISO/COPOLCO). The Council highlighted the areas where consumers lodge most complaints and the services that cause the greatest loss and/or harm to consumers. It was suggested that an international standard was required to ensure airline passengers are compensated in the same way, no matter which airline consumers use. Suggestions were also made to develop standards for cabin bags for the different classes, to avoid consumers facing problems with different airlines.

Objective 3: Conducting research and investigation into matters affecting consumers

Minor research and investigations

A total of 74 minor research tasks was conducted during the seven months of 2016. These were prompted by consumer complaints, observations from market surveillance, or were undertaken to support the Council's advocacy work and policy submissions. Refer to Annex 2 for details on issues covered.

Notable issues

Incorrect Application of Resident Interest Withholding Tax: Thousands of Consumers Affected

Consumers were wrongly charged Resident Interest Withholding Tax (RIWT) on interest earned on a Term Deposit Account. RIWT is a final tax which means that the gross amount of any interest income paid to a Fiji resident by a financial institution in Fiji must be taxed at a fixed rate imposed by FRCA.

A complaint-driven snap-check by the Council revealed that all six banks (BSP, Westpac, Baroda, HFC, Bred Bank and ANZ) had committed an error in the application of the RIWT. FRCA imposed 10% RIWT effective 1 January 2016 but the banks continued to charge the old rate of 20%.

On 15 April 2016, the Council exposed ANZ for charging 31% RIWT effective from 1 January 2016, when in fact RIWT should have been 10% for 2016 and 20% for the period 2012 to 2015.

Price Gouging after TC Winston

After tropical cyclone Winston, consumers experienced post-disaster price gouging on a range of goods including mill mix, a by-product of wheat which is used as animal feed.

It was found that the traders all around Fiji carried out an 'overnight price hike' on basic food items such as rice, flour, oil, tin fish, biscuits, sugar, toilet paper, toothpaste, soap and items such as candles, batteries, torch, and many more items.

This was not the time for traders to capitalise on consumers' miseries while they were trying to rebuild their lives.

Regarding mill mix, it was found that a number of traders in the Suva-Nausori corridor and in Lautoka and Labasa had increased the price of mill mix immediately after TC Winston. Based on the complaints, the Council investigated the matter to establish the reason for the price hike. The Council found that Punja & Sons Limited was selling a 35-kg bag at a wholesale rate of $15.26 while FMF was trading at wholesale rate of $13.08.

Punja & Sons Limited confirmed there was a shortage of mill mix while FMF stated they were able to meet the normal requirements of their customers. Both suppliers maintained that the supply of mill mix was dependent on flour production, which depends on market demand.

It was difficult to believe that the demand for flour had reduced after the cyclone. It was expected that flour production would be at its peak, hence supplying mill mix in the market unless there was a shortage of raw materials or the mills were damaged during the cyclone, which was not the case.

The Pink Window Creations reappears as Desi Fashion House!

Consumers were duped for the third time by the owners of Pink Window Creations, now operating under the name Desi Fashion House. In the past, the Council had received 203 complaints with the monetary value of $72,381 against this online boutique for taking full payments for orders they could not supply.

In early 2014, the Directors of Pink Window Creations had set up an online boutique with the name, Fashion Bure. This venture was short-lived following an advisory issued by the Council cautioning consumers to be aware when dealing with this new boutique given that the business was owned by the same person running Pink Window Creations.

Desi Fashion House Facebook page.

Snap surveys were conducted on selected jewellery stores to ascertain whether their weighing machines were calibrated.

In March 2016, the Council received confirmation on the resurfacing of Pink Window Creations with a new brand name, Desi Fashion House, operating through Facebook to sell ethnic Indian wear and fashion accessories.

This case was referred to Fiji Commerce Commission for breaching Section 88 (1) (a) (i) and (b) of the Commerce Commission Decree 2010 for "Accepting Payment without Being Able to Supply as Ordered".

Jewellery stores weighing machines questionable

The Council conducted a complaints-driven snap survey covering sixteen jewellery stores in the Central, Northern and Western Divisions to establish whether their weighing machines were calibrated. It was found that the weighing machines in all sixteen stores surveyed did not have valid weighing stickers on their machines to indicate that they were calibrated by the Department of Weights and Measures.

Calibration ensures that these machines provide the accurate weight of gold and therefore prevents traders from tampering to manipulate for more profits.

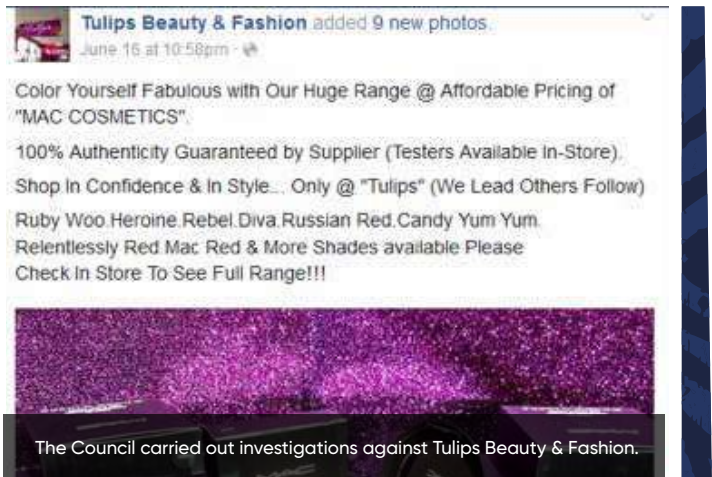

The Council informed the Department of Weights and Measures of the findings of the survey for their action. Consumers were also advised to be cautious during their next visit to jewellery stores. They were told to check for the Department of Weights and Measures stamp (in the form of a sticker) that should be placed on the face of the scale before agreeing to have their jewellery weighed. The sticker should state the date, month and year, when the instrument was checked and whether it should have a 'coat of arms' and a serial number.

If the sticker stamp is missing or the date stated on the stamp has expired or there is no "coat of arms" or serial numbers, then consumers should report the matter to the Council or to the Department of Weights and Measures.

Impacts

Below are some of the notable impacts from the Council's minor research and investigations which resulted in traders and service providers improving their services:

- Coca Cola Amatil Fiji Limited incorporated important points and comments raised by the Council on the final terms and conditions of its "Coke Peel & Win Cash" promotion. Suggested amendments were also carried out on the posters regarding this promotion.
- Biosecurity Authority of Fiji detained 2 consignments imported from USA under its import restrictions requirements. A consignment of Whey Products was released after the Council's intervention. The second consignment of 4 cartons of Glucerna Nutritional Drink was detained due to restrictions placed on supplementary formulated food. However, 3 cartons were released and a compensation of $140 was offered as one carton was destroyed.

The Council carried out investigations against Tulips Beauty & Fashion.

- The Council carried out investigations against Tulips Beauty & Fashion and conducted research on MAC Cosmetics retailed by them. The boutique had advertised that the MAC Cosmetics retailed were authentic. The Council wrote to the original MAC Cosmetics Company based in New York through its official website. The company responded that Tulips Beauty & Fashion was not their customer and was retailing fake MAC Cosmetics. The online web page through which the company was ordering and receiving goods in Fiji was shut down due to legal efforts of the original MAC Cosmetics manufacturer. The Council informed the consumers through a press release to be more vigilant when purchasing expensive makeup brands at unrealistically cheap prices.
- Ministry of Forests warned suppliers of timber to Vinod Patel & Co Ltd after a consumer notified the Council that poor quality timber lining was supplied. The Council sought assistance from the Ministry of Forests, which inspected and tested a sample of the timber and advised that since the wet treated timber was not fully dried, the pinhole borers had infested the timber. The Ministry warned the supplier to take precautionary measures during treatment and ensure that the entire process of treatment is properly executed before the product is sold to consumers. Vinod Patel & Co Ltd provided redress by supplying dried treated timber to the complainant's residence free of charge.

Objective 4: Conduct research in partnership with regional and international organisations

The Council participated in Consumers International's (CI) Membership survey. The purpose of the survey was to provide up-to-date information about the Council and suggest what CI needs to do in the area of consumer protection internationally. The Council requested CI to lobby the United Nations to officially recognise the 'World Consumer Rights Day' on 15 March as the day for CI members to take action around the world.

Objective 5: Conduct market surveillance to establish product prices and compliance with product labelling, safety requirements and misrepresentation

Market Surveillance

The Council conducted market surveillance to check for market manipulation, price rigging or insider trading (dobbing in) to ensure integrity and fairness principles are upheld for consumers in the trading environment. Trader and service provider visits allow the Council to observe and gain an insight into business practices, whether good or bad.

Trader and Service Visits

The market surveillance team conducted a total of 102 trader and service provider visits during this period to check for pricing, expiry dates, labeling, product manipulation, etc. Such visits now involve direct on-site discussions with store managers and meetings with management for an effective resolution of the issues identified. Refer Table 14 for details:

Table 14: Summary of Trader and Service Provider Visits

Location	No. of Trader Visits	No. of Service Provider Visits	Total
Suva	32	15	47
Lautoka	24	7	31
Labasa	17	7	24
TOTAL	73	29	102

Impacts

- A total of 100 traders and service providers immediately rectified problems (expired food items, damaged items, labelling issues) after the Council's intervention.
- Positive action was taken by the Health Department of Lautoka City Council after a survey conducted by the Council revealed that public health was being compromised by unhygienic practices. A workshop was organised with all market food sellers and bean cart operators to educate and advocate on food safety issues.
- The Ministry of Health conducted an inspection of the facilities of the two major flour manufacturing companies i.e. Punjas & Sons and Flour Mills of Fiji. This was proposed by the Council to resolve ongoing complaints by consumers regarding weevil and maggot infestations in flour and wheat products.
- The Ministry of Education amended its policy of free distribution of milk to Year One students in schools after the Council's intervention. The issue was the distribution of milk that had gone past its expiry date. The Council together with the Ministry discovered that such milk was indeed kept in school. A circular was sent by the Ministry of Education to all school heads regarding this and the policy was reviewed for amendment, as there was nothing mentioned on what action should be taken if in case, the milk has exceeded its 'Use By' date, or, if limited time is left before the expiry date.

Advertisement monitoring

A total of 25 advertisements were monitored. Advertisement on print, radio, television, online and in-store posters, flyers and banners were monitored.

Impacts

All 25 advertisements were either amended or in some cases, were removed altogether. For example, Priety Shopping Centre, N Solanki Ltd in Lautoka and Mahesh Syndicate in Suva had to remove misleading in-store notices that read: "6% discount on all items" and replaced it with a correct notice that read: "6% VAT reduction on all items".

Objective 6: Engage with Government, regulators, policy makers, private sector, NGOs and civil society groups with the aim of safeguarding and promoting consumer interests

One of the key activities of the Council is to promote consumer interests by engaging with various stakeholders. From January to July 2016, the Council undertook a total of 89 engagements with government bodies, regulators, traders and service providers, including civil society groups. Refer to Annex 3 for more details.

- Government Boards and Committees: The Council attended 8 meetings with various Government Boards and committees which included:
 - Food Task Force – Technical Advisory Group (Ministry of Health)
 - Fiji Mediation Centre Steering Committee (Ministry of Justice)
 - Fiji Pharmacy Profession Board (Ministry of Health)
- Stakeholder Consultation and Forums: As part of WCRD, the Council held consultations with the World Health Organisation (WHO) and the Ministry of Health and Medical Services to formalise the partnership, funding and campaign activities planned for the event. In addition, the Council also held consultations with the Parliamentary Standing Committee, Ministry of Economy and Ministry of Communications. The Council attended a total of 23 consultations and meetings.
- Private Sector Engagement: The Council had increased its engagement with the business community in an effort to address problems faced by consumers when buying goods and services. These engagements involved face-to-face meetings with traders and service providers on problems found in the Council's market surveillance and investigations work. These were opportunities for the Council to directly seek explanation or clarification from businesses in regard to unfair trade practices, systematic issues, compensation for aggrieved consumers etc.
- Engagement with Regulators: The Council also engaged with a total of 16 regulators. These engagements also involved the exchange of information and dialogue on problems faced by consumers and how to address these effectively.
- International and Regional Engagements: On the regional and international front, the Council participated in the meeting of the ACP-EU Follow-up Committee. This Committee is made up of 12 European Economic and Social Committee (EESC), and twelve African, Caribbean and Pacific (ACP) members. The ACP members are proposed by the international socio-professional organisations (international employer, trade union, farmer and consumer organisations) and the Consumer Council of Fiji was nominated by Consumers International (CI). The meeting revolved around the future of ACP-EU relations in the post-Cotonou framework, latest developments with Economic Partnership Agreements and climate change and its challenges for agriculture and food security.

ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION

➤ Goal 3: Resolve consumer complaints through Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR), Advisory Services and Legal Representation

When products malfunction or are defective only days after being purchased, consumers are affected because they are not getting value for their money. Every year, Fijian consumers lose millions of dollars through unfair trading practices.

Many consumers who have been duped by traders and service providers, have limited options for redress. Generally, consumers seek the Council's assistance in resolving their problems. The Council provides an affordable avenue for consumers who do not have the resources or time to go to Court to seek redress.

Objective 1: Resolve consumer complaints through mediation with traders and service providers

A total of 1,011 complaints were resolved through mediation in the first seven months of 2016, representing a total monetary value of $1,551,212.00. These figures were inclusive of complaints received from the Council's two regional offices – Lautoka and Labasa. A total of 1,365 complaints were received, worth $2,963,326.

Mediations held in January-July 2016

A total of 101 mediation meetings were held at the Council. Respondents and complainants were brought together with Council personnel for mediation to find a mutual solution to the problem.

The Council conducted 101 mediation meetings.

1. Electronic goods – Complaints regarding electronic goods (home) again topped the list of consumer complaints, with a total of 158 registered cases. After-sales service continues to be one of the major problems faced by consumers. Other complaints are related to the quality of products, non-availability of parts, delays in repair works and loss of items during repairs.
2. Landlord and Tenancy – A total of 121 complaints were received from tenants. Issues ranged from illegal notice to vacate premises, increase in rent despite the rental freeze, refusal to refund bond money, poor housing conditions and non-issuance of rental receipts. The Council has assisted these tenants by holding mediation with both parties and in most cases, an amicable solution was reached.
3. Mobile Products – Third on the list of complaints received were issues related to mobile products. A total of 112 complaints were received. Problems faced by consumers included defective screen tablets, duration of repairs and sale of shoddy and counterfeit goods.
4. Food and Drinks – A total of 78 food and drinks related complaints were received. The complaints ranged from dead insects found in freshly served food to expired products and incorrect packaging.
5. Television services – A total of 60 complaints were received during the transition in ownership of Sky Pacific to Digicel. The complaints were related to weak or no signal, outages, delayed installation despite full payment, and, poor customer service.
6. Online shopping – There were 54 complaints related to online shopping after Desi Fashion House, an online boutique, failed to supply goods to consumers who had already paid $13,844. The online boutique sold Indian wear which were the same items sold by the then, Pink Window Creations in 2013.
7. Water (WAF) – A total of 47 complaints were received concerning estimated readings, faulty meters, incorrect billing, water supply disruptions, water pipe leakages, quality of customer service and lack of clarity in billing.
8. Hardware – There were 44 complaints related to supply of inferior quality building materials, tools and machinery.
9. Value Added Tax (VAT) – A total of 41 complaints were received pertaining to VAT where some traders failed to adjust VAT reduction from 15% to 9%. These cases, along with others which the Council established by comparing past receipts, were referred to FRCA for enforcement.
10. Electricity (FEA) – A total of 40 complaints were registered with the Council relating to the Fiji Electricity Authority. The nature of complaints mainly involved the high bills received by consumers due to estimated readings; meter readers not making honest attempts to carry out normal readings; power surges and blackouts resulting in damage to household appliances with no avenue for compensation; disconnections without proper notice; non-issuance of bills and bulk billing.

Top 10 complaints received

Impacts

- Since 1 January 2016, the Council recorded 148 VAT-related queries/complaints which were passed on to FRCA for enforcement. Consequently, FRCA charged 32 traders/service providers and collected $700,000 in fines from supermarkets, a cinema company, stores, restaurants and car dealers.
- A complainant purchased a motor vehicle from Carpenters Motors for $41,000. However, she did not receive the vehicle with the specifications as per the quotation provided to her. The quotation stated that the vehicle would have LED emitters on the side mirrors as a specification, however, the vehicle did not have LED emitters. The company stated that the LED emitter lights were an accessory rather than a specification as the part is fitted locally on the vehicle. Moreover, the make and model which the complainant purchased did not consist of this specification. Numerous emails were exchanged and meetings were conducted by the Council to resolve this matter after which Carpenters Motors provided a refund of $1,350 to the complainant. They also agreed to install the LED emitter lights.
- A complainant purchased a phone on the 1st September 2015 for $899 from Courts Fiji Ltd. A week after purchase, the phone was found to be defective. He returned the phone for repair and until January 2016, the phone still had not been repaired. The Council intervened on behalf of the complainant and enquired with the trader on the status of phone repair. The trader informed the Council that the phone was sent to Singapore for repairs and the complainant was given a temporary phone. After several follow ups, the respondent issued a replacement phone to the complainant.

Electronic goods and mobile products were two of the top ten complaints received.

- A complainant paid a visit to a dental clinic to have his tooth pulled and to have dentures inserted. He paid a sum of $450.00 for the entire dental service. When the dentures were eventually given, the complainant couldn't wear them because they were ill-fitted and loose. They also fell out of his mouth on a few occasions causing embarrassment. The complainant had his dentures re-aligned on four occasions at the dental clinic and still the problem persisted. The complainant had gone to the extent of purchasing gel worth $30.00 to apply to his gums prior to putting on his dentures. The complainant was left with no option but to request for a full refund due to the unsatisfactory services provided by the dental clinic. Through the Council's intervention and mediation, the complainant received his full refund of $450.00.

Objective 2: Advising and assisting consumers on matters affecting their interests

It is common for consumers to contact the Council to seek advice on the course of action they should take in relation to faulty goods, unsatisfactory services, disputes in relation to payment, residential tenancy issues or other general differences with a trader or service provider.

A total of 1113 advisories were sought from the Council; 782 consumers sought advice in the Central Division, 213 in the Western Division, 118 in the Northern Division, and, 169 advisories were sought via the Council's mobile units.

Objective 3: Refer cases that come under the jurisdiction of other consumer protection agencies for their intervention

In cases where the mediation process has failed, the Council then referred these cases to other consumer protection agencies (CPAs) and authorities' due to their jurisdiction and for enforcement action.

Objective 4: Support and maintain legal proceedings contemplated or initiated by consumers where the Council deems such support necessary

The Council referred 60 complaints to the Small Claims Tribunal (SCT) with a monetary value of $56,342.99 by assisting consumers with the filling up of SCT forms; 22 consumers were in Suva, 13 in Lautoka and 1 in Labasa.

Objective 5: Provide debt management and consumer credit advisory services to financially illiterate consumers

The Debt Management and Consumer Advisory Services Unit at the Council provides financial advice on financial products; understanding of financial contracts; tips on borrowing; what to look out for when looking for a home loan, why demand a pre-disclosure statement; preparing budgets to understand income and expenditure; and, restructuring of consumer credit accounts with the relevant credit institution.

The Council provided advice to 29 consumers who sought assistance with respect to their financial situations and assistance was provided to 23 consumers who had their respective loan account repayments restructured.

Impacts

- A complainant paid $300.00 and applied to switch from the variable interest rate to the fixed interest rate. Unfortunately, BSP did not implement the change and continued to charge the account with the variable interest rate. It was only after the Council intervened, that BSP credited the account with $2,201.71 as adjustment for the interest charged.
- A complainant entered into a hire purchase agreement to purchase a LED TV screen. The total amount payable as per the hire purchase agreement was $3,904.20. However, a few months later, the complainant started to default his account repayments because of unemployment. As a result, the items were repossessed. The Complainant sought the Council's assistance and we were able to mediate for an additional 21 days' timeframe so that the complainant could nominate a buyer to purchase the items.

The Council referred consumer complaints which it could not resolve through mediation to other Consumer Protection Agencies (CPAs).

National Consumer Helpline (NCH)

Objective 6: Provide telephonic advice, information and guidance to consumers and to resolve, as best as possible, their concerns and grievances experienced in the marketplace through National Consumer Helpline

The day, 14 July 2016 was momentous for the Council as the country's first ever National Consumer Helpline (NCH) was launched by the Attorney-General and Minister of Economy, Hon. Aiyaz Sayed Khaiyum to promote a fair, healthier and safer trading environment for consumers. This initiative aimed to support consumers who found it difficult to physically reach consumer protection organisations to lodge their complaints.

The launch was attended by key stakeholders such as the telecommunication companies and media partners. A media campaign was launched by partnering with four media organisations (The Fiji Times, Fiji Sun, FBC and Fiji TV) to publicise the toll-free number 155 and to publish National Consumer Helpline articles free of charge.

From 14 to 31 July, the Council received 683 calls. 306 calls were noted to be genuine whereas 377 calls were categorized as non-genuine (prank, blank, noisy, incomplete, etc.) calls.

GOVERNANCE, MANAGEMENT AND FINANCE

GOAL 4: Foster a High Performance Organisation

Governance and Management

The Council's corporate governance framework provides the organisation with the management processes to ensure that the Council remains a vibrant and valuable organisation for Fijian consumers. The framework also maintains performance standards and effective co-ordination mechanisms for the Council's operations and activities. This includes the establishment and development of effective internal controls on financial reporting. The framework encourages the prudent and efficient use of donor funds in accordance with good governance principles. In addition, the Council maintains and adheres to a healthy work environment with a work culture that promotes organisational pride and corporate social responsibility.

Board Appointment

Pursuant to the Consumer Council of Fiji Act Cap 235, the power to appoint members of the Board is vested in the Minister for Industry, Trade and Tourism. The Board's primary responsibility is to provide appropriate direction to the institution for its day-to-day administration. The Board is also responsible for the overall governance of the Council. By virtue of Section 4 (9) of the Act, the Council is required to make rules governing its procedures. The Council has its Board Charter, which sets the procedures for the Board members to provide leadership to the management team. The Charter underlies and contributes to the Board's commitment to excellence, transparency and accountability.

Minister for Industry, Trade and Tourism, Hon. Faiyaz Koya and Permanent Secretary Mr. Shaheen Ali met the Council's Board and Management Team.

Board Meetings

The Consumer Council of Fiji Act requires the Board to meet at least four times in a calendar year. The Council's Board of Directors was appointed on 12 April 2016 for a three-year term from 6 April 2016 to 6 April 2019. The Board comprises a Chairperson and six Members. Two Board meetings were held during this period. One Special Board Meeting was held on 28 April 2016 for the induction of Board members. The second Board meeting was held on 14 June 2016 where the Council invited the Minister for Industry, Trade and Tourism and the Permanent Secretary to meet with the Board and the Management Team to discuss issues pertaining to the Council.

Policies and Plans

The Board approved a set of policies and plans for the smooth running of the Council. The following documents were reviewed in 2016 and approved by the Board:

- Induction Policy Manual;
- Human Resources Policy Manual;
- Finance and Asset Management Policy Manual;
- Administration Policy Manual;
- Strategic Plan 2016-2018; and
- Work Plan 2016

A new "Policy on Hire of Retirees at Consumer Council of Fiji" was drafted and adopted by the Board during its meeting on 14 June 2016.

Staffing

As at 31 July 2016, the Council had 31 staff members working in its three offices in Suva (Central/Eastern), Lautoka (Western) and Labasa (Northern). The Council normally engages volunteers, student interns and proactive consumers to deliver its services as required by its legislation.

Three new positions were created to manage the National Consumer Helpline (NCH). During this period, the Council recruited 13 permanent staff and 2 temporary staff to fill in the vacant positions in relevant Divisions. Unfortunately, there is a high staff turnover rate at the Council, as there is a tendency for staff to move on, notwithstanding pay increases. Some leave because of incompetency and others, because of the lack of appreciation and understanding of the work that needs to be done.

Staff Training/Capacity Building

The Council has invested in up-skilling its staff to ensure effective and efficient service delivery to the consumers. In 2016, staff attended 3 training programmes to upgrade their skills and knowledge. These were as reflected in the Table below:

Table 20: Summary of Training Conducted

Date	Training Programs/In-House Training
29 February – 1 March 2016	Gitanjali Pillay attended "Mediation Workshop" held at Grand Pacific Hotel, Suva.
17 June 2016	Mithleshni Gurdalay and Nanise Veikoso attended Technical Training on Content Upload with Datec Fiji Limited at Datec Training Centre.
11 July 2016	Ahilya Kumar received training on the payroll software

Performance Management System

The Performance Management System was reviewed in February 2016. The system provides the vital components to assess employees and encourage a culture of continuous learning, alongside performance improvements. Staff performances were also assessed using the performance appraisal system. The Performance Appraisal Forms outlined the targets that were required to be achieved by the staff for the payment of bonuses.

Office Renovation

The Suva Office was renovated mainly to cater for the staff of the NCH. In addition, a new room was constructed to conduct mediations.

Staff and Management Meetings

Two staff briefings and three management meetings were held during the seven months. These forms of networking strengthens working relationships amongst different divisions and staff. It also enables the Council staff to be focused on its targets and outcomes. The staff were regularly updated on the new policies, plans, and consumerism; and also on the Board's and the CEO's expectations, including the assessment of the targets.

Council's IT, Registry and Database Services

The Council outsourced its IT services to Datec Fiji Limited on a yearly contract basis. The Council's Complaints Management Database System was upgraded to include additional features. Datec Fiji Limited was further engaged to design a database for the Council's newly established NCH, which is now operational.

National Consumer Helpline

The Council sought the services of Telecommunications Fiji Limited (TFL) to set up phone lines for all staff. Analogue and digital telephones in the offices were replaced with new ones and two new analogue phones were installed for the toll free line. The Council signed a Sales and Purchase Agreement for Equipment with TFL. An official signing of the Integrated Services Digital Network Agreement for the provision of toll free services between the Council and telecom providers (TFL, Vodafone & Digicel) took place at the Council during a press conference in July 2016.

Finance

In 2016, the Council signed a Service Agreement with the Ministry for Industry, Trade and Tourism which outlined the key result areas (KRAs) and the targets that had to be achieved during the financial year. To deliver the targets, the Council received a Government grant of $661,587 VIP.

Anne Fransen Fund (AFF)

The Council also received donor funds from Anne Fransen Fund (AFF) for a sum of FJD $22,026.43 in March 2015 for a project titled "Right to Redress in Financial Services". The aim of the project was to empower and mobilise consumers to become knowledgeable of their rights and responsibilities related to consumer financial protection laws and redress mechanisms. Its aim was also to educate consumers on how to manage their personal debts and why they must not borrow beyond their means. This project started in 2015 and was completed in March 2016.

The Council used the funds to carry out the following activities in 2016:

- Produced and broadcast 30-second radio advertisements on "Hardship Clause" and "Debt-to-Income Ratio" in conjunction with FBC. The radio advertisements were aired from 7 December 2015 to 10 January 2016 across 6 radio stations (Radio Fiji 1, Radio Fiji 2, Gold FM, Mirchi FM, Bula FM, 2 Day FM) in English and vernacular (Hindi and I-Taukei) languages.
- Two television advertisements on the "Hardship Clause" and "Debt-to-Income Ratio" were aired from 17 December 2015 to 17 January 2016. These were 30 second advertisements aimed at educating consumers on the significant provisions in the Consumer Credit Act.

European Union (EU) Project

The Council successfully completed the activities as planned under the EU Project. The Fiji Mediation Centre (FMC) Steering Committee comprising the Council and accredited mediators were appointed to oversee the logistics in the establishment of the Centre.

An Activity Plan was drafted, discussed and finalised between the Council and the Judicial Department to guide the activities planned for the establishment of the FMC. Based on the plan, the following activities were conducted:

- Mediators' Forum was organised on 4 March 2016 at the Judges' Common Room – Government Buildings, Suva. The workshop was primarily for the 14 accredited mediators of FMC. The objective of the event was to engage mediators in establishing minimum guidelines to regulate mediators and the mediation processes in Fiji. The topics for discussion were on Draft Policy and Procedures; Draft Fee Structure; Way Forward for the FMC (Public Awareness); Preliminary Issues by the Mediators; and Fiji Mediation Centre Draft Brochure Content.
- Radio, TV and Cinema advertisements on "Mediation and Fiji Mediation Centre" were prepared in the English, Hindi and I-Taukei languages. These were 30 second advertisements.
 - Cinema advertisements were aired in all 14 Cinemas (Village 6 Cinemas, Village 4 Cinemas and Damodar Event Cinemas) by Communications Fiji Limited.
 - Television advertisements were screened on 2 national television platforms – FBC and Fiji TV.
 - As for the radio advertisement, the same was run on 6 stations on FBC – Gold FM, 2 Day FM, Radio Fiji One, Bula FM, Radio Fiji Two and Mirchi FM.
 - 3,000 copies of a brochure titled "Mediation in Fiji" were produced in the English, Hindi and I-Taukei languages for different communities.
- A seminar for the business sector was organised on 26 May 2016 at Holiday Inn, Suva. The objective of the Seminar was to "Raise awareness on the use of Mediator Process and Fiji Mediation Centre for Dispute Resolution". The forum was officiated by Mr. Christoph Wager (Head of Cooperation) at the Delegation for the European Union. A total of 56 guests attended the event, which comprised representatives from banks and financial institutions, insurance Companies, the legal fraternity, NGOs, Judicial Department, hire purchase industry, Labour Department and academic institutions.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

CONSUMER COUNCIL OF FIJI

I have audited the accompanying financial statements of Consumer Council of Fiji ("the Council"), which comprise the statement of financial position for the seven months period ended 31 July 2016, and the statement of income and expenditure, statement of changes in accumulated funds and statement of cash flows for the year then ended and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information as set out on notes 1 to 11.

Directors and Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

The directors and management are responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards for Small and Medium-sized Entities and the requirements of the Consumer Council Act, 1976. These responsibilities include: designing, implementing and maintaining internal controls relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material mis-statements, whether due to fraud or error, selecting and applying appropriate accounting policies, and making accounting estimates that are reasonable in the circumstances.

Auditor's Responsibility

My responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on my audit. I have conducted my audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing. Those standards require that I comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the Council's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Council's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

I believe that the audit evidence I have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my audit opinion.

Audit Opinion

In my opinion:

- a) proper books of account have been kept by Consumer Council of Fiji, as far as it appears from my examination of those books, and
- b) the accompanying financial statements which have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards for Small and Medium-sized Entities:

- i) are in agreement with the books of account; and
- ii) to the best of my information and according to the explanations given to me:
 - a) give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of Consumer Council of Fiji for the seven months period ended 31 July 2016 and of the results, and cash flows of Consumer Council of Fiji for the year ended on that date; and
 - b) give the information required by Consumer Council Act, 1976 in the manner so required.
